Questions 33 - 40 are based on the following story.

One day, Salman was walking home along an alley. It was rather late—11.00 p.m. The night was dark and he was alone. As he was passing a monsoon drain, he heard shouts for help. At once he rushed towards the drain and saw an old woman in it. She pleaded for assistance as she was badly injured. Salman pulled her out and told her to wait while he went to get help.

Without hesitation, Salman raced to the main road. He was deeply distressed when he sensed no one was around. Suddenly, from afar he saw two spotlights. He knew it was a car. As it came nearer, he stood in the middle of the road and raised his hands while shouting as loudly as he could. The driver must have seen him as he stopped his car immediately. Salman related to him what had happened and he was willing to help.

The concerned driver, Hassan, and Salman went to the place where the old woman was waiting. She was a very strong woman. Even though she was badly injured, she put up a brave front. She looked at them imploringly. Quickly, they sent her to the General Hospital and Salman thanked the man who then left. The injured woman had requested Salman to inform her family. With the numbers she had given him, Salman called up her relatives.

Soon, her grandson, a man in his thirties, arrived. After getting permission from the medical assistant, they went to see the woman who was heavily bandaged. She told them that she had been robbed of her purse. The robber had then pushed her into the drain and fled. She had been in the drain for more than ten minutes before Salman came to her rescue. She thanked Salman heartily and her grandson sent him home.

33 What time did Salman hear the shouts?

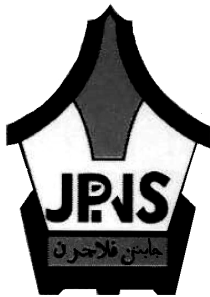

- A At dawn.
- B Late evening.
- C Close to midnight.
- D Half past midnight.

34 Why was the old woman seeking help?

- A She was afraid of the dark.
- B She was seriously hurt.
- C She was feeling lonely.
- D She had lost her way.

- 35 Salman was upset when he reached the main road because he
- A lost the race.
 - B had left the woman alone.
 - C saw a car coming towards him.
 - D could not find anyone to ask for help.
- 36 Why was Salman waving and shouting loudly in the middle of the road?
- A He wanted to relate his story to someone who passed by.
 - B He was trying to get the attention of the driver.
 - C He was excited upon seeing the car.
 - D He wanted a lift back home.
- 37 The old woman can be considered tough because she
- A could stand the pain of her wounds.
 - B was willing to wait in the dark.
 - C agreed to go to the hospital.
 - D was as strong as a mule.
- 38 The word imploringly can be replaced by
- A quietly.
 - B eagerly.
 - C pleadingly.
 - D thoughtfully.
- 39 The old woman's grandson was most probably
- A 35 years old.
 - B 26 years old.
 - C 40 years old.
 - D 18 years old.
- 40 From the passage we know that Salman and Hassan are
- A sociable.
 - B frustrated.
 - C busy bodies.
 - D compassionate.
